Director
International Cooperation Administration
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Riddleberger:

As you are aware, the National Security Council recently reviewed and reaffirmed the validity of the Overseas Internal Security Program (OISP) policy. For over three years our respective agencies have co-operated closely in this interagency program.

In such a cooperative venture I think it is essential that we maintain a close working relationship and an understanding of problems arising in connection with the program so that we can carry out national policy objectives. In this regard, I would like to arrange for [redacted] who has been designated as CIA's point of contact on the OISP, to call on you at your convenience to discuss CIA's role in this program.

Sincerely,
